Since its first publication in 1865, Lewis Carroll's Alice's Adventures in Wonderland has captivated readers of all ages with its whimsical characters, enchanting settings, and timeless themes. Now, in 2024, this beloved classic is set to enchant a new generation with a stunningly illustrated edition.

With exquisite new illustrations by acclaimed artist Emily Sutton, this edition of Alice's Adventures in Wonderland is a visual feast that brings the iconic characters and fantastical scenes to life. From the curious Alice tumbling down the rabbit hole to the Mad Hatter's tea party, each illustration is a work of art that will transport readers of all ages into Carroll's imaginative world.

A Journey Through a World of Wonder

Alice's Adventures in Wonderland is a timeless tale of imagination and adventure, following the young Alice as she embarks on a surreal journey through a world both familiar and utterly strange. Along the way, she encounters a cast of unforgettable characters, including the Cheshire Cat, the White Rabbit, and the Queen of Hearts.

Each encounter is a lesson in the absurdities of life, as Alice grapples with the illogical rules and nonsensical characters that populate Wonderland. Through her adventures, she learns to embrace her own individuality and imagination, even in the face of adversity.
